The Spirit of G.Jf.S.

What is this Spirit of C.H.S.? It is a feeling, many varied emotions, a moment of silence and meditation, a fiery moment of action in a sports contest, a reassuring thought in a moment of sadness, a resounding cheer blaring from the stadium. The Spirit of C.H.S. is a lot of things which show up in a lot of places; on the other hand it is an intangible, invisible thing seldom seen by the naked eye. This Spirit of C.H.S., is it the teachers? the students? is it the classroom toil? the extracurricular social affairs? or the sports program of the school?

When the Spirit of a school waxes forth with a great vitality and vigor, it is realized in every move made, every emotion felt, every thought conceived, and every hope dared by each student. This vigorous, living, breathing Spirit projects itself past the walls of the schoolhouse; it reveals itself in sundry places and unexpected times.

Canton High has a Spirit of this sort that echoes its name near and far and high into the sky. For this Spirit let us be thankful and proud, proud that we are a part of it. It is the desire of each Senior that the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen should carry this Spirit into the consolidated school-a Spirit that makes itself known through

Preparation

We satisfied our appetites with food prepared by our "Grade A" cooks.

We practiced first at band camp, then later performed on the football field.

"File who is prepared to day will be more so tomorrow."

Ovid
We prepared the train for a victory ride and loads of fun!

Participation
We sang along as the train moved on.

"Things won are done, joy's soul lies in the doing."

We took time out to work together on bulletin boards.

Achievement

"Nothing is achieved before it be thoroughly

 attempted.".. Sir Philip Sydney

We ambled down this walk many times as "Big Seniors"

Reward

We finally received our diplomas our reward for twelve years' work!

We received shiny trophies for victories

Gratitude

The, the annual staff, lovingly present this yearbook not only with thought of one special teacher, but remembering every faculty member of Canton Ifigh School. Our teachers represent a total of 521 years of teaching experience. This book is in honor of each of These wonderful men and women who have given so unselfishly and tirelessly of their time and efforts so that we might one day be the kind of citizens who will work to make the world a better place in which to live It is not difficult to see that a school is no better than its - feathers. Canton High is the Gest
"Gratitude is the memory of the heart."

It is with pleasure that we, the Annual Staff of Canton High School, dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Dorothy Walker, whose many years of unselfish service have in some way benefitted almost every student during his four years at Canton High.

In her typing classes she has prepared many students to take their places in the business world. Others have received training which helped them attain their college degrees.

Mrs. Walker does not stop simply at teaching. She gives of her spare time in order to guide our Student Council, one of the most important bodies in the school. Along with this duty goes the concession stand, of which Mrs. Walker shares management.

For all of the above, and for much more besides, we dedicate this book in honor of Mrs. Dorothy Walker.

Senior Jfistory

We made our first debut at Canton High with a short visit during our last year in Junior High. At this time, we became acquainted with the high school students and teachers. The year started off early for a few of the "luckier" ones. They made their first and most memorable trip to football and band camp that year. Then school opened, and we were faced with the many problems and much fun of adjusting to high school life. We survived the initial onslaught of our library course and other new subjects. This was the year that our own Mr. Shaver came, to everyone's delight. On the other hand, it was the year of the Cuban crisis which scared us all to death. However, while water was scarce in Cuba, it just poured through Miss Gillis's and Mrs. Silver's rooms. Our freshman year saw the rise of high fashion in the girls' shifts and the boys' socks and shirts to match. It was also the first year we really helped cheer our football team on. Yes, all this--all this and much more--was our freshman year.

Abstract

Our sophomore year came and went with a bit of tragedy mixed with our otherwise happy year. The tragedy we experienced went farther than our own school, for the assassination of our beloved President Kennedy brought heart-felt sorrow over the entire world. But all was not sad, nor for very long, because this was the year we "society sophomores" began to join the many clubs and other extra-curricular activities. The Latin Club students were rewarded for all their study by the fun they had on their trip to Raleigh. This was the year we witnessed the cruel murder of Julius Caesar in literature while we traced the history of the world back to its meager beginnings. This also was the year the epidemic of mumps filled the absentee list and gave the office staff a few more gray hairs. Our football team didn't quite make state champs, but we gave them all our loyal support anyway. All these things were our sophomore year, and when it finally came to a close we found ourselves already half through C.H.S.

Before we were ready for it, our junior year was upon us. So many things happened this year that we could talk about it all day. In sports, C.H.S. was tops. Our football team had but one defeat and one tie all season. Everyone who went had a great time on the train ride to Murphy. This was the first passenger train to leave Canton in years. In basketball C.H.S. had one of the finest teams to be around in years. At the beginning of the season we went undefeated for thirteen straight games. In the post-season tournament we were finally beaten by an unmentionable rival of ours. Christmas came quickly and with it came the Sub-Deb and Cotillion dances which will hold memories for us always in our hearts. Our band escorted Canton's own Dan K. Moore in his Inauguration Parade in Raleigh. The Pep Club became a new group around school, and the Haywood County Consolidated School became a reality on a hill. Robertson Memorial YMCA was completed and dedicated. Finally decorations for the prom were com-pleted--the best ever, we thought. During our junior year we began thinking about our futures, choosing colleges or vocations. Some tried to get a good night's sleep in preparation for College Boards. Among other things that marked our junior year, we helped elect a GIRL from our class as President of Student Council.

This was the year that was--great. It was the time for which we had all been waiting. Finally we had reached the top. We were big Seniors now. Our heads were pretty swollen for the first few days, but suddenly the novelty wore off and we found ourselves hard at work and hard at play. William Shakespeare and Latin America became our two chief foes. However, we stayed with MacBETH and HAMLET to their bloody ends and we successfully overthrew Goulart. We found ourselves hard at (play?!!!) in candy and bake sales for J.C. and-in making Christmas novelty pins. We burned Waynesville in effigy, enjoyed a hot dog supper sponsored by the Student Council, and beat W.T.H.S. in the second thrilling football game. We were proud of our football team as they went on to become co-champions of the Blue Ridge Conference (for the last time ever). Our basketball team was very spirited but a little inexperienced. Our school paper took first place at the WCC Editor's Round Table while the BLACK BEAR copped second place. A happy day it was when our rings finally arrived! Everyone impatiently waited over the weekend for the Monday we received them. In history, we bought and sold our shares on the Stock Market. The prom was a beautiful affair as usual, with the Juniors coming through for us. Then came that very important day in our lives--the day of our graduation. We couldn't believe it had come so soon. Where had our high school years all gone? Nevertheless, it was here, and it was a day for joy and also for tears--tears because those four years had flown by so very quickly. Now we were ready to face the world and it's many challenges-----because-----CHS had trained us well!!!!!

Student Council Officers Guide Our School

The Student Council officers are Kerry Cogburn, treasurer; Lynn Boone, secretary; Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Walker, sponsors; Phyllis Vance, president; and Mike Shields, vice president.

The Student Council is the largest, most important, and probably the oldest single body in our school. Every student in Canton High is unofficially a member of the Student Council. However, officially this governing body consists of the four executive officers, various committees and their chairmen, the home room representatives, and the faculty sponsors.

All chapel programs, the Leadership Workshop, the Mental Health Workshop, keeping the campus clean, the school store, the concession stand, and many other activities are in some way related to the Student Council. This gives an idea of its tremendous place in our school.

Our own Student Council was one of the first in Western North Carolina, and it is still one of the best!

Jwelve Years of Perfect Attendance

Anthony Cagle, Terry Scroggs, Terry Milner, and Daryl Wilson.

Between dances, this candid shot was taken of these seniors as they enjoyed a short rest.

In 1939, the first prom was held at C. H. S. Since then, it has become a tradition of our school. Juniors raise funds by the sale of hose.

Despite the difficulties of fleeting time, wilting flowers, drooping crepe paper, and running paint; a garden scene set the mood for a very successful prom.
"Tender Is The Night" was the theme chosen to honor the Seniors of 1965.
Before the dance, a luscious banquet was enjoyed by teachers and students.

Many Favorable Adjectives Msed to Describe 1965 Prom

Black

Bear

The Black Bear has been the symbol of Canton High School for many years, -- from the time the school began. After this year, even if our Bear ceases to exist, it will still live on in the memories and hearts of every student who has trod the corridors of C.H.S.

For many years this Bear has been inseparable with the first and best of everything in our school. The Black Bear has brought to mind scholarship, clean spirit, and good sportsmanship. Although our Bear may be discarded, let us all hope that the ideals it represents will continue.
